The Boys A curling team won their semifinals match yesterday against St. Joe's 9-5. They will be competing in Regionals after the break. They played with complete professionalism, looking calm, cool, and collected. Props to skip Liam Gauthier, third Shae, Second Ethan, and lead Keegan. We are so excited for you to represent BJM! Go Saints!

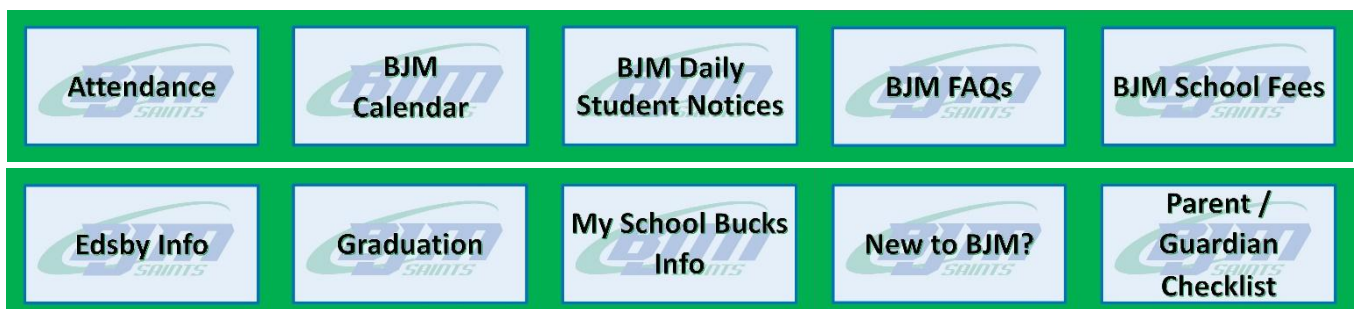

Exciting News from Don's Photo: We are excited to inform you that a student from Bishop James Mahoney High School has been selected as a winner in the Local Lens: Where Every Click Tells a Story! Student Photo Contest, sponsored by Canon! As part of our initiative to support emerging photographers and enhance photography programs, each winning student's school also receives a matching prize. Cassidy Malanowich from your school has won a Canon imagePROGRAF PRO-1100 printer for your school's photography program!

In Case You Missed It:

BJM Blood Drive: Hey BJM parents! The second blood drive of the year is this Friday, February 14th. If your child is 17 or older, we'd like to encourage you to encourage them to sign up for this drive. Donating blood is a great way to help spread the love and to help save lives. It's not too late for them to sign up! Thanks, BJM blood drive representatives.

Anyone involved in production of 67 Cinderella's (cast, crew, backstage, hair & makeup, light, and sound, everybody, set painters, everybody!) is invited to buy merch. The online store is open until next Friday, February 14. Use this link to purchase: <https://bjmtheaterclub2025.itemorder.com/shop/product/47077887/>
