

As we journey through Advent, may we appreciate the gift of Catholic Education and take the time to notice the many blessings around us.

Shrek The Musical – December 4, 5, and 6

Our students and staff directors have been rehearsing tirelessly, and the stage is set for a magical performance!

Join us December 4, 5, and 6 at 7:00 pm for Shrek the Musical.

Bring your family, invite friends, and come enjoy an evening of student talent and heart. (Click here for advance tickets.)

Winter Athletics are underway

Curling, Basketball and Wrestling seasons have begun. We can't wait to cheer you on throughout the season. We will highlight our teams in our pep rally on December 10. Go Saints!

Band Concert – December 9

Please join us for an evening of music at 7:00 pm. Our musicians have been working hard, and they are looking forward to sharing their gifts and talents with their families and friends. In lieu of tickets, we ask families to bring a non-perishable hamper item (peanut butter or rice, or any non-perishable hamper item). Thank you in advance.

Early Dismissal – December 11

Students are dismissed at 12:25 pm. Staff will partake in Professional development in the afternoon.

Last week of School – SRG planned days
