As we move forward, the work of setting up learning plans for the year and planning for special activities can resume. This week we are working with the grade 8 leadership team to build in some welcome week activities for next week. Next week we will also have Meet the Staff event on Tuesday, September 17 as well as school photos on September 18 and 19th. Further information can be found in the newsletter that will be coming out on Thursday.

Looking forward to the year ahead.
