

1 Educational Commitment

1.4 People of Justice

Policy

Catholic schools assist students to understand relationships in light of the teachings of the church by:

1. Instilling love for, and fidelity to, Christ's teachings.
2. Developing an understanding and respect for people of other religious traditions.
3. Inspiring students to welcome human life with love from its earliest beginnings to its natural end.
4. Practicing stewardship and respect for all of God's creation.
5. Promoting peace through prayer, just laws, equity, and respect for local, provincial, national governments and global interdependence.
6. Enabling students to integrate faith, morality, culture, and justice in their lives.
