

Statement of Policy

The Director of Education shall present an annual five-year school facilities plan for approval by the Board of Education.

Rationale

The five-year school facilities plan addresses the ever-changing needs of Greater Saskatoon Catholic Schools, including student growth and decline within neighbourhoods, expansion and congregation of programming, and building quality restoration.

Authority

- The Education Act, Section 279

Guidelines

1. The five-year school facilities plan shall be responsive to educational programming, student enrolment, ends statements, and assets.
2. The five-year school facilities plan shall be an integral part of the annual budget process.
3. The five-year school facilities plan will be contained within the Catholic Education Plan of the Board of Education.

Procedures

1. The Director of Education, in consultation with Executive Council, shall recommend a five-year school facilities plan for Board approval.

Forms

As prescribed by the Minister
