

STUDENT SAFETY – UNUSUAL THREATS

POLICY

LEGAL REF: EA 85(w)

Whenever an unusual threat to student safety is received, the principal shall take appropriate action to deal with the matter.

BOARD APPROVED: June 28, 1982

REGULATIONS AND PROCEDURES

1. When there is considerable certainty that a threat is a hoax, the principal shall:
 - a) notify the police immediately
 - b) notify the Director of the incident
 - c) carry on with regular classes unless advised to the contrary by the police
2. If a bomb threat is considered authentic, the principal shall:
 - a) clear the premises according to fire drill procedures but avoid the area of the bomb location.
 - b) notify the police and the Director
 - c) resume classes after clearance by the police

EFFECTIVE DATE: June 28, 1982